Subject: Reed/Cunningham

Dear Cathy, Found your information while brousing RootsWeb this morning and decided to ask if you would be willing to check my records that I have collected and see if we have come to the same conclusion about our ancestors. My Cunningham connection is as follows:

Martha Cunningham married my 2nd great grandfather James Bayes prob. Turkeyfoot Twp. now Somerset Co., PA. James born 28 Dec 1798 d 11 Apr 1882 in (Holmes)OH

Martha 3 Apr 1797 d 20 Sep 1884 Hicksville, OH

Both bur in Fredericksburg East Cem. This cem is just over the line from Holmes Co. into Wayne.

Believe Martha Cunningham' s parents are John Cunningham and Jane McClintock. Believe John Cunningham's parents are John & Martha Reed. Believe Jane Ann's McClintock's parents are Alexander McClintock and Mary Eston. I am looking for documents to substantiate these.

James Bayes & Martha Cunningham had son Thomas Bayes marr to Catharine Haley. Thomas & Catharine had son William Potter Bayes marr Mahala Ann Partee. William & Mahala had son Howard LeRoy Bayes - my father.

Mainly I have seven pages from PA State Library with information on Cunninghams, McClintocks. Some pages from the Laurel Messenger with same names and others. (see Eston)

If you are interested in receiving any of this let me know.

Bethel Methodist Church Cemetery

Info Map

Rt 281 (Kingwood Rd)
Paddytown
Somerset County
Pennsylvania USA
Postal Code: 15551

Cemetery notes and/or description:
Old church cemetery on land donated by the Cunningham family. The Cunningham family farm & log house was just north of this cemetery. The old log house was removed and reassembled by the Amish beside Shepherd's Farm Restaurant, just down the road, and overlooking the Cassleman River and Fort Hill. Today the cemetery is difficult to see, as it's up a bank beside Rt 281. If you turn onto Chicken Bone Hollow Rd, and look back, you'll see it easily.

and rugged features, still remains uncleared. There are few, if any, portions of the county which afford more attractive scenery. This township contains more than an average number of fine farms.

A large number of the early settlers were Irish. Many of their descendants are still living upon the original homesteads. But it is difficult to conceive the changes that have been wrought since their ancestors penetrated the heart of the wilderness, and, fighting their way against countless obstacles, prepared for the civilization of today. This entire region was filled with wild game, and therefore it was not difficult for the pioneer to obtain the means of subsistence; but it required arduous and long-continued toil to clear off the forests, subdue the earth and render it fit for cultivation. How dreary, how remote from the world, yet how courageous and how trustful were the lives of the early settlers!

Two of the sons, Brookley and Coston, have charge of the farm, which is a good one, in a flourishing condition. Dr. Wesley Cunningham, of Gebhartsburg, is also a son of John, Jr.

Jacob Younkin, an early settler near Kingwood, was a native of Germany, and came to this county from Bucks county, Pennsylvania. After his death his farm was equally divided between his two sons, John J. and Henry. John J. was born on the old homestead in 1787, and died in 1839. He married Polly Hartzell, and reared eleven children, three of whom survive: Jacob, Herman and Elizabeth (Hare). Herman Younkin is a farmer, and resides in this township. He has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church forty years, and a local preacher for thirty years. He has served as assessor and collector several terms.

Frederick Younkin was born in Bucks county about 1762. At an early age he settled near Kingwood, and cleared up a farm. He was one of the earliest settlers in that neighborhood, and experienced much annoyance from bears, panthers and other wild animals which then infested the forests. He was a shoemaker by trade, and also carried on distilling and farming. He died in 1843. His children were Moses, John, Frederick F. (the sole survivor), Henry, Betsey, Polly, Christina (Dull), Catharine (Lamer), Sarah (Weimer) and Peggy (Pinkey). Frederick F. was born in 1800, on the farm where he still resides. His son, J. C., lives on a farm adjacent to the homestead. He purchased it of his father in 1857.

Henry Kreger, a native of Germany, settled in Middle Creek township in 1836. He died in Upper Turkey-Foot, where several of his children now live. His son, Henry S., born in Germany in 1800, came to this county about 1834. He has resided in this township since about 1847, and now lives with his son Christopher. His son Jacob, who was born in Middle Creek township, has been engaged in the mercantile business at Kingwood since 1864. He was a soldier in the late war, and lost a leg at Fredericksburg. Mr. Kreger has held several township offices.

Baltzer Gerhard, a native of Germany, came to Brother's Valley township in 1826. His son Jacob came to America with him in 1819, and in 1845 settled in this township. He has served as justice of the peace for twenty-three years. Jacob B. Gerhard, son of Jacob, is a native of this township. He was engaged in teaching for a time, but since 1881 has been carrying on the mercantile business in Kingwood.

Radolph Meyers, a native of Stony Creek township, settled in Upper Turkey-Foot about 1838, purchasing a farm of three hundred and sixty acres of Barney Conolly. He died in 1874. Mr. Meyers was the father of eight children. His eldest son, Jonas, served in the late war from August, 1862, to June, 1865, in Co. C, 142d regt. Penn. Vols., and was wounded at Hatcher's Run and at Cold Harbor. He purchased the farm on which he lives, of William J. Baer, in 1867.

John Henry, whose father was a revolutionary soldier, moved from McConnellsburg to this township about 1808. He settled upon a farm of two hundred and twenty-eight acres, which he cleared and improved. A cabin had previously been erected on the farm by an early

HISTORY OF UPPER TURKEYFOOT TOWNSHIP
Somerset County, PAGenWeb

Upper TURKEYFOOT township was organized in 1848, its territory, up to that date, having been included in the old township of Turkeyfoot. This region was settled early, but much of the land, owing to its mountainous and rugged features still remains uncleared. CUNNINGHAM On the paternal side this family traces to the Emerald Isle, where John (1) Cunningham, grandfather of John A. Cunningham, of Connellsville, was born. John (1) Cunningham came to the United States, where he married Anna McClintock, whose father, Alexander McClintock, was born in Ireland, came to the American colonies prior to the revolution, and was a member of General Washington's personal guard, serving seven years, nearly the entire revolutionary period. After the war he came to Pennsylvania, settling in Somerset county on Fort Hill, township of Addison, where he made a clearing and cultivated a small area until his death at a log rolling, being caught and crushed under a huge log that caught him unawares.

(II) John (2), son of John (1) and Anna (McClintock) Cunningham, was born in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, 1806, died 1875.

Dear Roena,

In reference to a death and burial record for Martha Bayes:

There isn't a death record for Martha Bayes in the Probate Office death records of Defiance County. Nor is there a grave marker listed in the Defiance County Cemetery Records which were catalogued by members of the Defiance County Genealogical Society.

However, there was listed in the Probate Office wills and intestate index, a file for Martha Bayes. The two inclosed papers are the only documents in this file. On the folder which held the original papers, was written the name Martha Bayes and the file number #23 BA. This appears to be your Martha.

These files are on microfische. Probate Office fee per page is $1.00. For this reason I didn't copy the folder page. If you should like to have this page, I can copy and send.

I checked the newspaper available in the Defiance Library for a death notice and found none. A friend tells me the newspaper from Hicksville is on microfilm but the owner will not let anyone look at them. I don't know how far they go back.

Sincerely,

Mary Bennett

the Connellsville and Perryopolis road. January 30, 1862, he married Miss Annie S., daughter of Joseph L. Walter, the latter a Westmoreland county farmer. Unto this union have been born eight children: Alva W., a butcher of Vanderbilt, married Belle B. Hepplewhite, of England; Frank P., a normal student at California, Pa.; Mary L., Lester M., Joseph H., Harry A., Ethel M. and Clyde Cottom.

Irving H. Cottom is a stanch democrat, and has served as supervisor of roads and assessor. He is a member and class-leader of the Methodist Episcopal church, is a man of decided views upon the leading issues of the day, and is a reliable and prominent citizen of his township.

MATTHEW G. CUNNINGHAM, farmer of Lower Tyrone township, is the son of Joseph and Jane (Gaut) Cunningham, both natives of Tyrone township, Fayette county, Pa.

His father, Joseph Cunningham, was a farmer in what is now Lower Tyrone. He was born March 22, 1801, in Fayette county, Pa., and died April 8, 1877, aged seventy-six years. He was a democrat, and held the offices of county commissioner, from 1851 to 1853, inclusive, school director and justice of the peace of his township. He was a prominent man in his time and well liked by all who knew him. He attended to a great deal of business as administrator and executor of estates in this county. He was a member of the Tyrone Presbyterian church, and a ruling elder of the same, for thirty years. In 1827 he married Miss Jane Gaut, who survived him nearly nine year, and died January 30, 1886, in her eightieth year. She was the daughter of Matthew Gaut, better known as Squire Gaut, a farmer of Tyrone township and for many years a justice of the peace.

Matthew G. Cunningham was born January 3, 1832, in what is now Lower Tyrone township, Fayette county, Pa. He was brought up on the farm, and has continued to follow farming all his life. He got his education in the common schools, and now resides on the farm formerly owned by his father, situated two miles northwest of Dawson, on the Dawson and Tyrone Mills road, and contains one hundred acres of good, well-improved land.

He was married September 25, 1856, to Miss Lydia Newcomer, daughter of Christian Newcomer, a farmer of Tyrone township; the latter died April 25, 1855, at the age of sixty-five. Of this marriage there are now living eight children: Charles B., William D., Joseph B., Herman R., Judson J., David O., Harry G. and Clayton C.; Charles B. is now engaged in the lumber business in Scott Haven, Allegheny county; William D. is the principal of the West Newton school; the rest are all at home.

Matthew G. Cunningham is one of the best citizens of Lower Tyrone, and has always lead a quiet, honorable life.

WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM, grandfather of Matthew G., was born 1767. After spending his earlier years at Old Laurel Furnace near Uniontown he established an inn for the accommodation of coach travelers on the National pike where now stands the enterprising county-seat.

In addition to his inn interests he sent teams over the mountains, frequently made trips himself to Cumberland and Baltimore, carrying over grain and other produce and returning with salt and manufactured articles.

Later in life he removed to Tyrone township and at the breaking out of the second war for independence he left his home and family to maintain the liberty which doubtless his father had struggled to secure. At the close of the war he returned to his home, where he soon after (1817) died, leaving to his two sons, Joseph and William, a farm of several hundred acres, a part of which has been held by the family and is now being tilled by the fourth generation.

He married Mary Huston who died fifteen years after the decease of her husband.

AUGUSTUS CUSTER was born near the village of Carpowen, Germany, September 5, 1856, paternal ancestors of the fifth generation migrated in 1732 to Germany from Switzerland, who were forced to leave the native country on account of the persecution of Protestants by the Roman Catholic church.

Charles Custer, a native of Germany, was the grandfather of Augustus Custer, and he was the grandson of the ancestor above mentioned.

John Custer, the father of Augustus, was born in Germany, September 3, 1820. He learned the tailor's trade, but followed it only a short time.

In 1844 he married a Miss Jackstice of his native village, and they had three children: Wilhelmina, Julius and Charles C. Julius was a corporal in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870, and was killed in an infantry charge at Courcelles, near Metz, in Lorraine. The other two children are married and live in Allegheny City. His first wife died in 1850, and John Custer married again in 1855 to Henrietta Heidemann, of Germany. By this marriage four children were born: Augustus, Augusta, Edward and Anna.

For eighteen years he was the overseer of lands owned by a nobleman, and his income was only sufficient to clothe and feed himself and family.

Auguste Custer was educated in the school of his native village, afterwards took a three years course in the graded schools.

Immediately after leaving school he came to America with his father in 1873. Eighty dollars in money, and a scanty outfit of clothing was the entire possessions of the family on their arrival here.

Augustus Custer located in Pittsburgh and engaged as a day laborer for one year, he then came to Franklin township, Fayette county, and rented a farm and in 1880 he bought a farm of 70 acres of land from Josiah King, of Perry township. When he purchased this land it was a perfect wilderness, and the soil exceedingly sterile. In 1881 he bought what is known as the "Robinson tract" from the Robinson heirs of Pittsburgh, containing 102 acres, which was in bad condition and had been without a tenant for over twenty years. In 1882 he bought 28 acres of land from David R. Snyder. This land, except 28 acres, was all in quite bad condition. He now has about 186 acres in a good condition and is well stocked. Mr. Custer has some of the finest blooded stock in the county and of which he makes a specialty. Mr. Custer is a good example of what industry will do for a man; in less than twenty years he has grown wealthy, and is one of the representative farmers of Fayette county.

HENRY B. DENNY was born January 22, 1817, at Uniontown, Fayette county, Pa., and was educated in old William Beggs' school. At seventeen years of age he began to work at quarrying rock on the National road for James Snyder, continuing to work for him for three years, when he learned the carpenter trade with John Mustard and Daniel Sharpnack, and worked at that business till the spring of 1888.

On November 29, 1857, he was married to Miss Salina Park, of New Geneva, a daughter of Andrew Park, who served in the War of 1812, was pensioned for services in that was killed in battle. They have two children: William, married Miss Moats, and Isaac, is married to Drusilla Hopwood, of near Uniontown. Mr. Cunningham is a good farmer and an exemplary citizen.

JAMES DOLAN, the accommodating proprietor of the "Central Hotel" at Vanderbilt, was born at Brandy Gap Tunnel near Clarksburg, W. Va., November 9, 1853, and is a son of Michael and Mary (Burk) Dolan.

Michael Dolan, Sr. (grandfather), came from Ireland to Clarksburg, W. Va., about 1846 and died at Grafton aged seventy-six years. His wife was Mary Cummings, who died before he left Ireland.

Michael Dolan (father) was a native of Ireland, he came with his father in 1846, to Virginia (now West Virginia), where he married Miss Mary, daughter of Patrick and Mary (Barry) Burk, natives of Ireland, who are now living at Buckhannon, W. Va., he in the ninety-six year of his age, and she in the ninety-third year of her age.

James Dolan was educated in the primary schools of Virginia, and the academy at Clarksburg; in 1870 was crippled in an explosion at Brooks Tunnel, in Somerset county, Pa. The first regular business that he engaged in, was keeping a grocery at Clarksburg in 1871. In 1874, when able to resume work, he removed to Hill Farm Coke Works in Fayette county, and engaged as a contractor at the mines. He next became proprietor, for two years, of a grocery at Dunbar, and then removed in 1883, to Braddock's Fields, where he opened and conducted for eighteen months, the Central Hotel. Disposing of his Braddock's Fields property, in 1885, he returned to Fayette county, opened the "Central Hotel" at Vanderbilt and has continued to run it successfully up to the present time.

In 1879 he married Miss Mary Elizabeth (Thornton) Rogan, a native of Ireland. The father died at Clarksburg, W. Va., in 1887. To their union were born four children: William Francis, James Edward, Arthur Augustus and Mary Ellen. Mrs. Dolan died August 5, 1888.

FRANCIS P. DOONAN, is of Irish descent and was born January, 13, 1854, near Kingwood, Preston county, West Virginia (then Virginia). He is a son of John and Bridget (Kenney) Doonan, both natives of County Longford, Ireland.

John Doonan (father) emigrated to America in 1837, and resided at Mt. Savage, Allegany county, Maryland, for a time, when he removed to Preston county, Virginia, and died at Wheeling in June, 1860. He had six children: James; Francis P.; John, dead; Mary E., now Mrs. Laffey, of Mineral county, West Virginia; Anna D.; Elizabeth, now Mrs. Locke, of Uniontown.

Francis P. Doonan was educated in the free schools, and Catholic schools of Clarksburgh, West Virginia, and the Normal schools of Somerset, Pennsylvania. He taught six terms of school—two in Mineral county, West Virginia, two in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, and two in this county.

Intelligent, quick and energetic, as a boy he naturally attracted observation, and was in governmental employ at Clarksburgh, West Virginia, when only fourteen years of age.

Being of good business tact and talent, his services have often been in demand in that line, he has successfully clerked at Clarksburgh, kept time on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and been an efficient book-keeper at Lemont Furnace. Specially qualified by this varied commercial experience, he embarked in the general mercantile and drug business at Dunbar in 1882; has built up, and democrat and takes an active interest in the success of his party, casting his first vote for James K. Polk, and has voted for every nominee of the democratic party for president since. His sons are all democrats. His farm in Bullskin township contains eighty-four acres of well-improved land underlaid with coal.

JAMES CUNNINGHAM, deceased. The late James Cunningham was a faithful citizen of Luzerne township, as well as a trusted public officer of Fayette county. He was born at Merrittstown, Fayette county, Pa., July 26, 1812, and was a son of William and Mary (Gallagher) Cunningham.

His grandfather, James Cunningham, was a native of Ireland. Previous to 1775, with his four brothers, he came to America and settled near the site of "Little Washington," Pa., and with a "Tomahawk Claim" took up a large tract of land. He served in the War of the Revolution, and when he returned found his land in possession of other people. He then went to Chester county, where he secured a tract of land. This tract he sold for continental currency, and later exchanged the price of this depreciated paper for a horse and cow. In 1800 he removed to near Merrittstown, where he built a distillery and erected the large stone house now occupied by Armstrong Porter. One of his sons, Thomas, was a college graduate and died while young; another son, John, served with Albert Gallatin in the Pennsylvania legislature in 1794, being a member of that body from 1793 to 1805.

William Cunningham was born in 1793, died May 2, 1819. He was a whig in politics, served as county commissioner and afterwards filled the office of United States district marshal and collector of taxes. September 3, 1811, he married Miss Mary Gallagher, born July 3, 1788. One of his sons, John, was justice of the peace in Luzerne, and now lives in Iowa.

James Cunningham was raised on a farm, received his education in the subscription schools and later learned the trade of blacksmith with George Brown, of Merrittstown, but soon abandoned that trade. He taught school for a number of years in Luzerne township, when he purchased a farm and engaged in farming until his death, April 5, 1888.

In 1835 he married Miss Rosanna Muir, of Scotch descent, and to their union were born: Mary, wife of I. N. Craft; John C., merchant of Belle Vernon, Pa., married Lizzie, daughter of Dr. J. S. Van Voorhis, of that place; Martha A.; Sarah M.; Alfred H. married Laura Springer, and is a commercial traveler for a Pittsburgh house, and Annie E.

James Cunningham was an elder of the Cumberland Presbyterian church up to 1880, when he withdrew and, in the same year, joined the Presbyterian church at Dunlap's Creek, and was elected ruling elder. In politics he was a democrat, serving two terms as justice of the peace, 1840 to 1850; one term as poor house director, one term as county auditor, 1860 to 1864, and two terms as county commissioner, 1874 to 1879. He was frequently urged to offer himself as a candidate for the legislature, but never did. His services were often called in demand to settle estates and write wills. As a citizen he was highly respected. As a public official he was conscientious in the discharge of his duties.

JOHN W. DEARTH, a leading and progressive farmer of Luzerne township, is a son of Larkins S. and Mary (Williams) Dearth, and was born in the house in which he now resides in Luzerne township, Fayette county, Pa., November 3, 1833.

liminary examination for the law, and was registered as a law student under the preceptorship of the firm of Boyle, Mestrezat & Boyle. He has done as much and probably more to promote the interests and develop the resources of the progressive little borough of Dunbar, than any other young man.

PETER R. DEMUTH, farmer, gardener and florist, of Connellsville, is a son of Joseph A. and Jane (Riste) De Muth, and was born on the farm he resides on, near Connellsville, Fayette county, Pa., September 23, 1833.

Joseph A. De Muth was born in Lancaster county, Pa., in 1800, came to Fayette county in 1825, and was principally engaged in farming for a livelihood. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and died in 1878. His wife was Miss Jane Riste, born in 1795, and died May 5, 1886. She was one of the early members of the Methodist Episcopal church. Her father, John Riste, was born in Lancaster county, came to Fayette county, and was engaged for many years in manufacturing linseed oil and operating a hemp mill.

Peter De Muth was raised on a farm in the manner that farmers' boys are reared, and received his education in the common schools. Leaving school he engaged in his present business of farming and gardening. A few years ago, he embarked in the greenhouse business and has been very successful.

In 1868 he was married to Miss Annie Beidler, daughter of Joseph Beidler, a farmer of Bullskin township. They have five children: Charles E., Albert N., Lizzie B., Joseph A. and Ida May.

Peter R. De Muth owns the old homestead of fifty-five acres, which is one mile north of Connellsville. He is a strong republican, and has served as school director. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and is a member of the board of stewards of his church. Mr. De Muth is always prompt in his business, and has now completed his preparations to enlarge and extensively stock his greenhouses with everything desirable in that line of business. He will locate his florist office at Connellsville and keep constantly on hand at that place the finest and most beautiful of cut flowers, to accommodate the flattering and substantial patronage that he is receiving. He is highly deserving of credit for the manner in which he has made his life a success, and for the hard labor and close attention that he gives to every detail of business entrusted to his care.

GEORGE CUNNINGHAM, one of Dunbar township's prosperous farmers, is a son of William and Sidney (Marietta) Cunningham, born at Connellsville, Fayette county, Pa., July 1, 1828.

John Cunningham (grandfather) was a native of Somerset county; was a farmer, a member of the Methodist church, and married Miss McClintock, who afterwards died in Fayette county.

William Cunningham (father) was born and raised in Somerset county, where he learned the trade of a potter, and removed to Connellsville, where he was married to Miss Sidney, daughter of George Marietta, a carpenter of that place. His principal employment was teaming, but engaging in a coal mine, he was badly injured by a fall of slate from the roof of the mine, the injuries from which he never recovered, and died four years later.

George Cunningham was educated in public schools of Connellsville, engaged in teaming until 1873, when he purchased a farm in Dunbar township, and since then has given his whole attention to farming. He was married to Harriet, daughter of Joseph Duncan, a soldier in the Mexican War, who a man whose death was deeply mourned by the community in which he lived. He was a member of the U. B. Church at Fairmount, and contributed liberally to its support. In politics he was an active worker in the Republican party. Mr. Ealy died March 19, 1885, and his widow now manages the farm with much skill. She is a member of the Baptist Church at Enon.

ANDREW JACKSON GRIMES, a prosperous farmer of Buffalo township, is a grandson of William Grimes, Sr., who was born east of the mountains in Pennsylvania, and became a pioneer settler of Washington county. He married and settled in Donegal township, where he reared nine children.

William Grimes, son of the above, was born in 1818, on the old homestead in Donegal township, this county, and in early manhood removed to Ohio, where he lived twenty years. He finally returned to Pennsylvania, and passed the remaining years of his life on the farm in Buffalo township, which is now occupied by his son, Andrew. He was a successful farmer. Mr. Grimes passed from earth in 1881.

Andrew Jackson Grimes was born in the year 1860, and passed his youth in assisting his father on the farm and in attending school, receiving a good education. His sister Sallie resides with him on a portion of the old farm. Mr. Grimes is a member of the United Presbyterian Church at Taylorstown, this county, and in politics is a Democrat, but is not an aspirant for political honors.

JOHN McPHERSON, a prominent pioneer of Buffalo township, was born April 1, 1812, in Lancaster county, Penn. His grandfather, John McPherson, was a native of Ireland, where his entire life was passed, and where he died at an advanced age, leaving a son named John.

John McPherson (father of the subject of this sketch) remained in Ireland until about twenty years of age, when he came to America, and settled in Lancaster county, Penn. He was married to Ann Logan, and she bore him children as follows: William, James, John, Daniel, Ann and Mary. Of this family all are deceased except Ann and John.

John McPherson remained in Lancaster county, Penn., until he was five years old, when he accompanied his parents to Washington county, same State. He received his early education at a log-cabin subscription school, which was near his present home. Mr. McPherson is now a venerable but hale old gentleman, and is highly esteemed by all who know him. In politics he is a Democrat of the old school, but has never permitted himself to become prominently connected with political questions.

COLIN R. PRALL, an enterprising and thrifty citizen and prominent agriculturist of Amwell township, is a native of the same, having been born May 9, 1850, on the old farm near "Dunning Hart's."

His grandfather, John Prall, came in an early day from New Jersey to Amwell township, Washington Co., Penn., and located on the old Van-Kirk farm, where he passed the remainder of his life. He was twice married, and reared the following family of children: William Harrison (deceased), Benjamin (deceased), Jackson, Mary (Mrs. Lacock), and Marguerite (wife of Mr. Stout). Mr. Prall took an active part in assisting to organize and develop the county, and did all in his power to promote any enterprise for the public good. He was a Democrat, but not a politician. He died in his eighty-second year, mourned by many friends.

Jackson Prall was born in 1815 on the old farm in Amwell township, Washington county, and lived there until about a year after his marriage. He was united in marriage with Mary Jane Carlile, a granddaughter of Mollie Stark, of Revolutionary fame. They had one son and one daughter: Colin R., and Mrs. Lizzie Jane Ward, residing in Washington county, Penn. After his marriage Mr. Prall purchased a farm of sixty-six acres, now a part of the "Dunning Hart" place, upon which he resided twenty-two years, when he removed to the old farm just south of Martinsburg, South Strabane township, and lived there eleven years, then came to the place on the National pike, east of Washington, where he now lives, retired from the more active scenes of life, in his seventy-sixth year. Mr. Prall has always given his voice and vote to the advancement of good government, but has never been an active politician. His wife died in 1878.

Colin R. Prall, son of Jackson and Sarah Prall, remained on the home farm until he was thirty-one years of age, and received a good common-school education. On September 28, 1871, he was married to Chris A. Slusher, who was born in 1850, a daughter of Michael and Lavina Slusher. In 1882 Mr. Prall purchased the farm of ninety acres which he now occupies, and which is one of the most valuable tracts in the township. He has, unaided, become a prosperous business man. Politically, he is a Democrat.

GEORGE CUNNINGHAM is a son of Launcelot Cunningham, who emigrated in 1812 from County Donegal, Ireland, and, landing at Philadelphia, first settled in Jefferson township, Washington Co., Penn. In early manhood he was married to Hannah Virtue, also a native of Ireland, who immigrated with her family to America, and the young people began their wedded life on the farm in this county which is yet owned by their descendants. Three children blessed their union, namely: George; Isabelle, born in 1821, and Hannah, born in 1823.

George Cunningham was born April 27, 1819, on the home farm in Jefferson township, this county, where he is now residing, and passed his youth in the usual duties incumbent upon a farmer's son. In 1841 he was united in marriage with Elizabeth Steen, who was born January 27, 1820, on the old Steen homestead in Jefferson township, daughter of Robert Steen, who was of Irish descent. To the union of George and Elizabeth Cunningham the following children were born: Hannah Ann (Mrs. McCleary), Robert (married to Jane Ann Scott), Elizabeth, George (married to Annie McCray) and Launcelot. The mother of these children died December 13, 1881. George Cunningham began life on a very modest little farm, but worked away with an unfaltering will and tireless industry. When his father died he bought out the interest of the other heirs in the old place and kept the property in the family name, and he now owns between three and four hundred acres of fertile and well-improved farm land. In politics he has always voted with the Democratic party, and is a counselor and adviser of that faction. In religious connection he is a member of the United Presbyterian Church, in which he has served as trustee, steward, and in various other capacities.

ROBERT B. VANCE is a representative of an old and highly esteemed family of Independence township. He is of Scotch descent, the first ancestor of the family to immigrate to America being one Joseph Vance, who was born in Scotland about the middle of the seventeenth century. In early manhood Joseph Vance left the "bonny braes" of Scotland, landing in America some time after, and becoming a pioneer settler of Pennsylvania. He located in Cross Creek township, Washington county, while the Indians were still numerous, and soon achieved a widespread reputation as an Indian fighter, many of the dusky warriors having fallen by his unerring rifle. Few if any were more prominently identified with the early settlement of the western portion of Washington county than was Mr. Vance. He married and passed the remainder of his life in the wilderness where his first log cabin was erected; during his lifetime the uncultivated land had become a fertile farm. He and his wife passed to their rest at an advanced age, leaving their children to finish the work so nobly begun.

Among these children was a son William, born in 1776, and reared in Washington county, amid the usual trials and dangers of pioneer life. His education was necessarily limited, as schools were few, and at best afforded but meager opportunities. He was first married to Rachel Patterson, a resident of Cross Creek township, who bore him six children. She died, and a few years afterward he married, for his second wife, Hannah Patterson, a member of an old family of Cross Creek township. To this union also were born six children. Mr. Vance always lived in Cross Creek township, and was one of the representative men of the day. He died in 1856. He was a Whig in politics, and in religion a member of the Presbyterian Church.

James Vance (the third child of his father's first marriage) was born July 22, 1804, in Cross Creek township, and passed his boyhood days on his father's farm, receiving instruction in the principles of agriculture, of which he made so practical a use in later life. He received a somewhat limited education in the subscription schools, and in 1829 was united in marriage with Susan Walker, who was born December 22, 1809, daughter of Alexander Walker, of Cross Creek township. The children born to their union were: Alvira (Mrs. James Dodds, of Independence township), Rachel (Mrs. Perry Liggett, of West Middletown, Penn.) and Robert B. (subject of this sketch). Mr. Vance continued to live in Cross Creek township until 1837, when he came to Independence township, locating about two miles east of the village of that name, and there made his permanent home. Mr. Vance was formerly an Old-line Whig, and on the formation of the new party united with the Republicans. Much of the success in his business life was due to his own efforts and sagacious management. Mr. Vance died in 1881, and September 29, 1889, was followed by his widow, who was laid to rest by the side of her husband. Both were consistent members of the Presbyterian Church.

Robert B. Vance was born August 30, 1842, on the old farm in Independence township, which is his present home. He attended the district schools, and assisted in the farm work. On March 8, 1866, he was married to Rebecca McCleary, who was born January 1, 1844, daughter of Ewing McCleary, of Brooke county, W. Va., and the following children were born to them: Cynthia (Mrs. Samuel Dunbar, of Smith township), Alvira, James E. and Sadie, the latter three living with their parents. Mr. Vance has always resided on the home place, and follows general farming and stock raising, being especially successful with the latter business. He is a well-known and popular citizen; in politics he is an active member of the Democratic party, and has been called upon to fill various township offices. Although Mr. Vance is not a church member, he believes in and supports the cause of religion. The "Golden Rule" is his motto, and by observing the precept which it contains he and his family have won the esteem and friendship of all who know them.

county seat of Wayne Co is Wooster, and in Holmes Co. it is Millersburg Are these adjoining counties?

no, we have not found ancestors of Jewell BAYES, just know that first records show up in Somerset PA.... The McClintocks or Alexander Mc was in the Revolutionary War. makes me think one of more of the Bayes must have been based on dates

Have speculated that Jewell and his brother Hugh BAYES may have come in early 1700's and somehow been related the BAYES brothers that settled in Pittsylvania Co., VA around then but then another BAYES researcher thinks they are connected to a John Jewell of Eastern PA where she said she also found a John BAYES???

Toinette married John Hatfield, and their son was my Father William Hatfield.

In researching the family tree, I found that we are also descended from Alexander Mcclintock 1603 from Scotland.

According to Mark Lozer, I understand you have investigated the Bayes Family tree. My question is where do we go before Jewel Stephen Bayes? It would seem that some of the must have been in the Rebolutionary War The McClintock;s came out of Somerset PA as did some of the Bayes I noticed.

Most of what I know about the family is that they lived in Holmes Co and some are buried in Fredericksburg with later generations living in Canton Ohio

Happy Birthday, my mother who lives in Brecksville will be 92 on Sept 20

Relationship Chart

A relationship between two people can be determined if a common ancestor is known. The two lineages should both begin with the common ancestor, shown on the chart as number 1. Next, list two lineages, one line shown below as A2, A3, A4, etc., which moves up, and the other as B2, B3, B4, etc., which moves down. By tracing any two persons to a point in the box where the grey or white bands intersect, a legal relationship can be found. For example, A3 and B3 are first cousins, but A3 and B4 are first cousins, once removed.

LEGEND:

N = niece or nephew to uncle or aunt.
GN = Great niece or nephew.
2C 1R = second cousins, once removed.
3C 4R = third cousins, four times removed.

Compton Family History

By Samuel B. Compton

In the early part of the eleventh century, the custom of adopting surnames was coming into favor. The first to use surname COMPTON was TURCHILL, son of Alwyn. He held title to vast estate in the parish of Compton, obtained from King Edward, who died in 1066.

The line of descent, thus begun in Warwickshire, was from Turchill to Lord Spencer Compton, Speaker of the House of Commons.

I TURCHILL, son of Alwyn.

II EGBERT, son of Turchill.

III THOMAS le COMPTON, son and heir, knighted by Henry III, given "half a Knight's fee in Compton."

IV PHILIP, son and heir, Lord of the Manor Compton.

V ROBERT le COMPTON, knighted by Edward II.

VI ROBERT, son and heir, commissioned to negotiate for Mary Countess of Fyfe.
